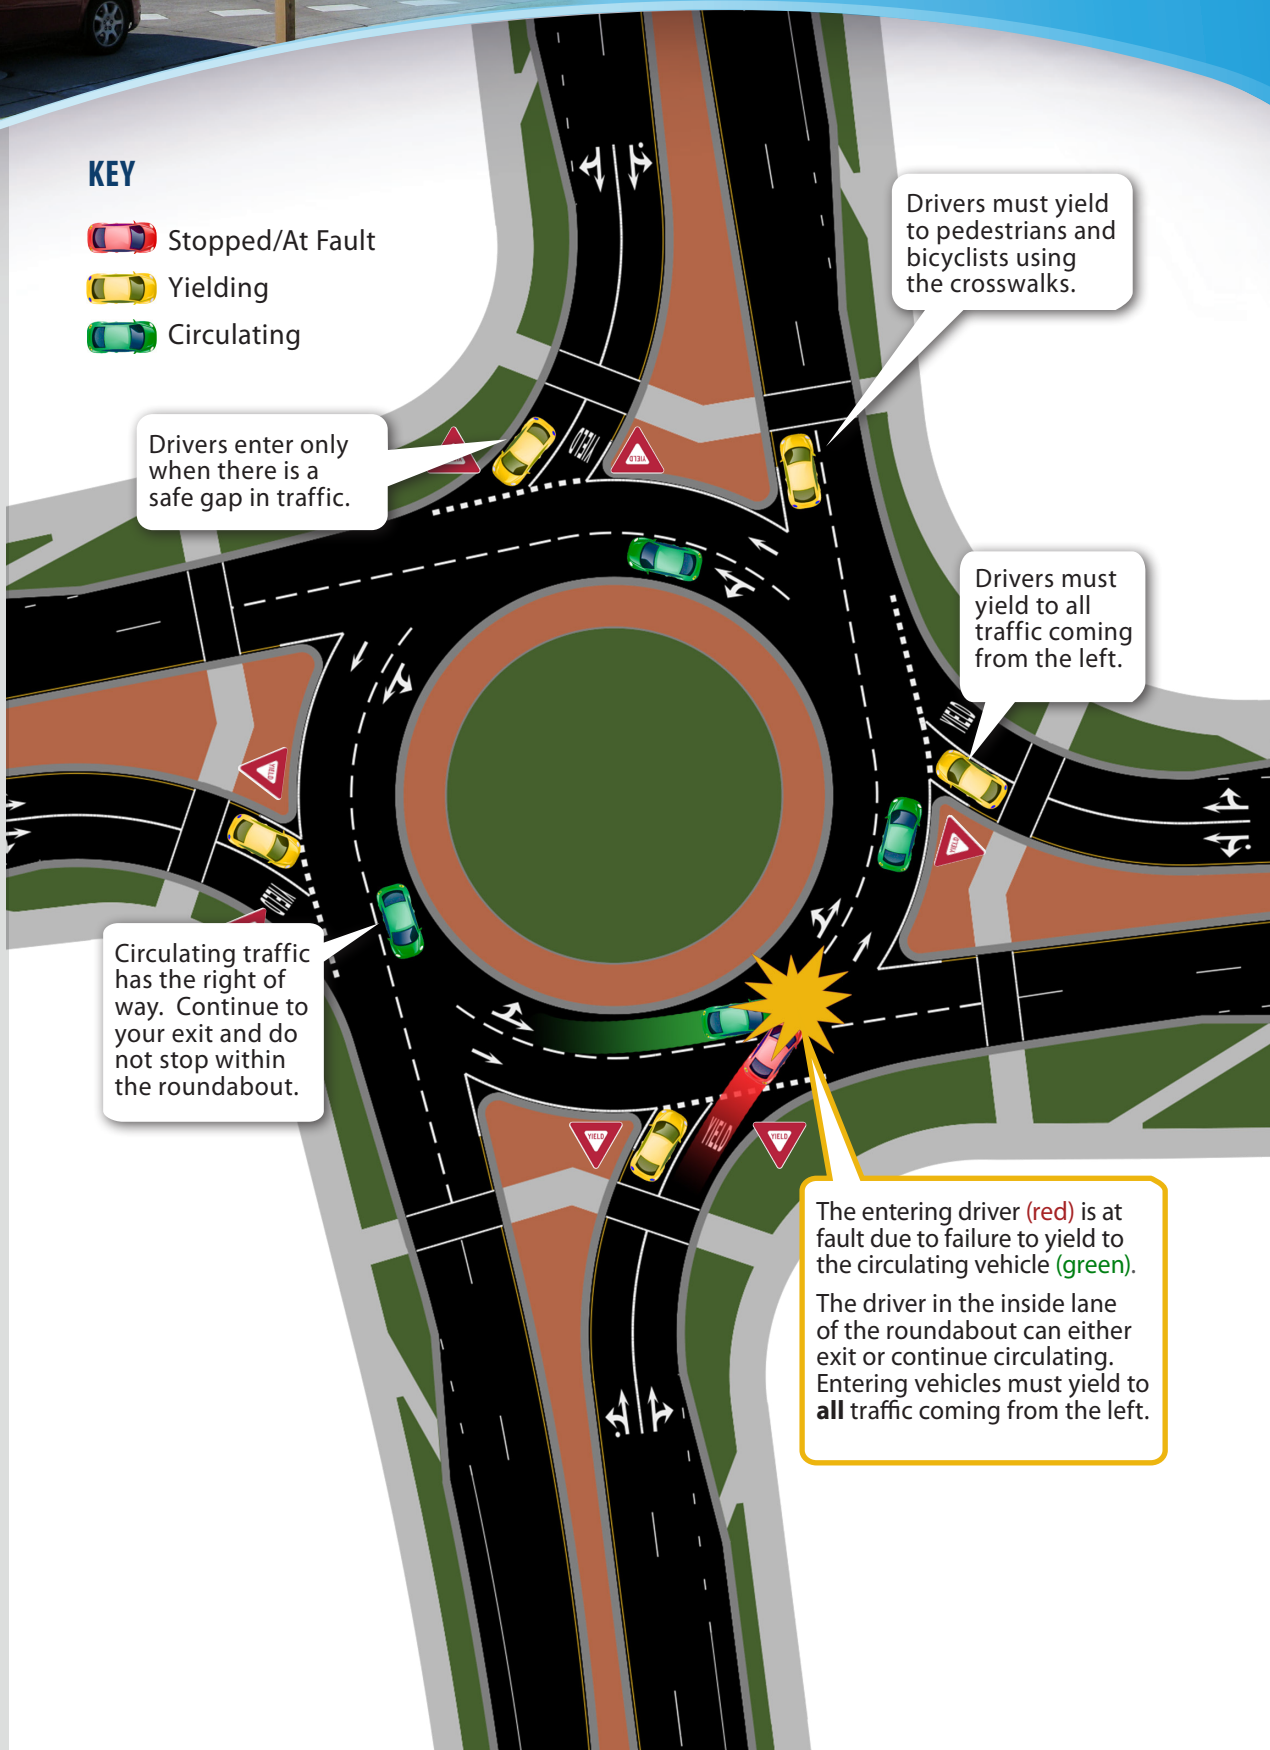
How to Drive Through a Roundabout

ALWAYS YIELD

TO ALL CIRCULATING TRAFFIC



YIELD

The "Golden Rule" of roundabouts.

Drivers entering a roundabout must yield to circulating traffic, pedestrians and bicyclists.

Drivers in the circle have the right of way. A motorist approaching a roundabout should wait for a safe gap in traffic before entering.

WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
U.S.Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration