September 7 - Branstool Orchard and Jitterbug Cafe (8:00 am)

Reg. Deadline: 9/5 Fee: $6 at signup, lunch OYO Activity Level: Strenuous

Branstool Orchards is a picturesque orchard sprawling across 75 acres in the scenic countryside of Utica. They are best known for their sweet and juicy peaches, but their crisp apples and savory pears are increasingly popular year after year. The orchard grows more than 20 varieties of peaches, 40 different apple varieties, Bartlett Pears, and they planted some tart cherry trees this spring. They offer U-Pick peaches, apples, flowers, and pumpkins as well as having an open-air market with fresh, local produce and pantry staples from nearby vendors. After visiting the orchard, eat lunch at the Jitterbug Café.

September 8 - National Veterans Memorial & Museum and North Market (9:15 am)

Reg. Deadline: 9/3 Fee: $17 at signup; Veterans Pay Only $4 Activity Level: Moderate

There's only one Museum in America that honors ALL our Veterans – from all branches of service, and from all eras of our nation's proud history of military service, both peacetime and wartime. The National Veterans Memorial & Museum is a powerful and personal experience designed to give a voice to every man and woman who answered the call for our country. This is neither a war memorial nor a military museum. The National Veterans Memorial & Museum takes visitors on a narrative journey telling individual stories and shared experiences of Veterans throughout history. Paying tribute to the sacrifices of servicemen and women and their families. History is presented in a dynamic, participatory experience with photos, letters and personal effects, multi-media presentations, and interactive exhibits. Together, these elements link our national story to the larger context of world events since our country's earliest days, and demonstrate the importance of individuals in shaping our history. Lunch at North Market.

Circle One: Fee: $17 or Discounted Veterans Fees: $4
