LEADING HILLIARD FORWARD

Q&A with City Manager Joshua Rauch

After more than 15 years helping shape and strengthen local governments across the Midwest, Joshua Rauch stepped into his new role as Hilliard's City Manager in April.

From internships in Dayton and Kansas to leadership positions in economic development, neighborhood services, and city management, Rauch has built a career focused on community growth and public service. Most recently, he served as City Manager for Riverside, Ohio, from 2021 to 2026.

When he's not working on city initiatives, Rauch enjoys cycling and spending time with his wife and their three elementary school-aged daughters. We sat down with Hilliard's new city manager — and self-proclaimed #GirlDad — to talk about leadership, community priorities, and what excites him most about Hilliard's future.

What can you tell us about your background?

I grew up in Dayton and Bellbrook, Ohio, and knew I wanted to do something in public service. I studied political science at the University of Dayton and spent most of my time between international relations and local government courses. Ultimately, what pulled me most toward local government is the opportunity to have a huge impact on your community. You can build relationships, plant seeds that directly help your next-door neighbors, and actually be around to see it happen.

What are your first impressions of Hilliard?

Hilliard is a dynamic, growing community with a lot going on. There are so many amenities, and it's attractive to families because of the fantastic school system. It's a great place to work, live, and play, with everything from walkable neighborhoods and bike paths to local bars and restaurants.

What attracted you to this position?

When you're looking for a place to build a great career while also finding the amenities your family needs year-round, Central Ohio is a great region. And Hilliard is the happiest place to be! This organization has great staff and resources, which are just icing on the cake.

What have you noticed in your first few months?

Just how welcoming everyone has been — it's that Midwestern friendliness. When we were looking at homes, we'd drive through neighborhoods and people would wave at us.

What did you think of the events in Downtown Hilliard?

I loved 43026 Day back in April — that was my first event. It really reflects the sense of community participation here. You can talk to your neighbors and enjoy a beer right in Downtown Hilliard. You don't get that everywhere in Ohio, and you get it in a special way here.

What do you like to do for fun?

I'm an avid cyclist, and the quality and quantity of trails and paths in our area was a major attractor to Hilliard. I'm excited to explore the City on the trails with my family. I tinker around with woodworking every now and then, and I'm always down for a cold beer and a good conversation.

What excites you about Hilliard's future?

There's a lot of momentum in our community, and we have a solid foundation to build towards the future. I'm excited to learn more about the community's vision and goals for the future, and to help think creatively about how we can bring that to life together.

Hilliard's Grass Guy(s)

Meet the man (and the robot) behind Hilliard's athletic fields

From perfectly painted sidelines to crisp mowing stripes, keeping Hilliard's athletic fields looking their best takes more than just mowing grass. It takes patience, precision, and a lot of time outdoors.

For Zach Pearl, it's all part of the job.

And these days, he has a high-tech coworker helping out: a field-painting robot named Linus.

Meet the grass guy

What made you want to go into turf management?

I actually tried to avoid it at first because it's what my dad does for the Lexington Legends baseball team. But I ended up working with him a few times and really enjoyed it and realized I could go to college for this. I love being able to work outside and work with my hands.

What does your day-to-day look like?

It varies a lot based on the day and the weather, but I oversee the Hilliard Athletic Complex and paint fields around the city, including Father Roderic J. DiPietro Park, Municipal Park, and the Hilliard Ohio Soccer Association Complex. We bounce around the city a lot so I feel like I'm always on the move.

What's something people don't realize about this profession?

There's a lot of hard work and passion that goes into it. It definitely requires patience, and results don't happen overnight.

What's the hardest part of keeping fields game-ready in Ohio?

As you can imagine, the weather makes it very difficult to plan. Then there's the constant traffic and wear and tear on the grass. It's a plant, so it doesn't like being beat up all the time. It's a balance between keeping the grass happy and keeping people happy.

MEASURE TWICE AND PAINT ONCE!

A High-Tech Teammate

How does Linus work, and how does he make your job easier?

Linus is connected to a base station that communicates with 32 different satellites. He paints lines based on preset coordinates that I assign through my tablet. He makes my job a lot easier because I don't have to string out and measure every individual field. What would take City staff weeks can now be completed in about three days with Linus' help. He's super accurate and very efficient. Depending on the field size, he can paint an entire field with less than a gallon of paint.

If Linus had a personality, what kind of coworker would he be?

Very meticulous and definitely Type-A. Maybe a little annoying with his habits, but always hardworking and getting better every day.

What does the perfect field look like to you?

Very green, sharp white lines, and nice straight mowing stripes through it.

How does your work impact athletes, teams, and the Hilliard community?

The goal is to provide a beautiful, safe playing surface for everyone to enjoy. Regardless of your age or ability, we want you to feel like you can come out and have fun on our fields.

Greener

Sustainability matters to both Hilliard residents and City of Hilliard leaders. But going green can mean much more than tossing cardboard into the recycling bin. From composting food waste to recycling Styrofoam and electronics, Hilliard offers residents several easy ways to make a lasting environmental impact right here at home.

"Hilliard is the kind of place that cares about the environment," said Public Service Director Kyle Hoyng. "Our team is dedicated to meeting those high standards."

In partnership with the Hilliard Environmental Sustainability Commission (ESC), the City has created multiple opportunities for residents to expand their green habits and help divert waste from local landfills.

"We know how much sustainable living matters to our residents, so we've built those efforts right into what we do every day — from food waste collection to our seasonal events," Hoyng said.

Food Waste Composting

Have you been tossing banana peels, coffee grounds, and stale bread? Instead of sending those leftovers to the landfill, Hilliard residents can give food waste a second life.

In collaboration with the Solid Waste Authority of Central Ohio (SWACO), the City operates a free food waste drop-off site in the Public Service Department parking lot at 3770 Municipal Way, next to City Hall. The site offers a simple but effective way to reduce landfill waste while turning food scraps back into usable compost.

Accepted items include many common kitchen scraps: fruit and vegetable peels; coffee grounds, filters, and tea bags; cooked meat; eggs and eggshells; dairy products; and grains, pasta, baked goods, and beans.

Items that should not be dropped off include uncooked meat, fish, and bones; fats, oils, and grease; K-Cups; compostable bags or utensils; and non-organic materials such as plastic, glass, rocks, metal, and polystyrene. The composting site is open 24/7 to both residents and non-residents.

And there's more good news on the horizon: curbside household food waste collection is expected to arrive in Hilliard in 2027 through expanded services from Local Waste Services.

Styrofoam Recycling

Online shopping may be convenient, but all that packaging can add up quickly — especially Styrofoam.

Polystyrene, commonly known as Styrofoam, is not accepted in Franklin County's standard recycling program and can take hundreds of years to decompose in a landfill. To help address the issue, the ESC partnered with SWACO to create a dedicated Styrofoam recycling drop-off site at the Public Service Department.

Together

Collected Styrofoam is processed using a densifier, which dramatically compresses the material. A pile the size of an SUV can be reduced to a brick-sized block, making it easier to reuse in products such as insulation and other building materials.

To recycle Styrofoam, all materials must be clean and free of stickers and tape. Food containers such as cups, plates, and egg cartons are not accepted, nor are packing peanuts. The Styrofoam recycling shed is open 24/7 to both residents and non-residents.

More Seasonal Recycling Opportunities

Hilliard's sustainability efforts continue year-round with a variety of seasonal recycling programs.

Each fall, residents can participate in pumpkin composting by dropping off old pumpkins and gourds at the Public Service Department parking lot. Instead of ending up in the landfill, those seasonal decorations can be composted and repurposed naturally — helping reduce waste and harmful carbon emissions.

After the holidays, residents can also recycle live Christmas trees during the three weeks following Christmas. Trees should be placed at the curb free of ornaments, lights, and decorations for collection and recycling.

Through programs large and small, the City continues working toward a greener, cleaner future, proving that when it comes to sustainability, local actions can make a big difference.

Learn more about the work of our Environmental Sustainability Commission:

Fall into Recycling

Every fall, the ESC hosts Fall into Recycling, an annual event that gives residents the opportunity to recycle electronics and securely shred paper documents.

Accepted electronics include batteries, computers, cameras, cellphones, tablets, TVs, and more. Most items can be recycled free of charge, though some may require an additional cash-only fee.

This year's event will take place Oct. 16 from 9 a.m. to noon in the parking lot of the Hilliard Public Service Department.

ONE YEAR LATER:

HOW THE WELL BECAME PART OF EVERYDAY LIFE

It is hard to believe it has already been one year since The Well officially opened in Hilliard. On Sept. 18, 2025, the community gathered to unveil our new recreation and wellness center on Cosgray Road, a facility designed with Hilliard's wants, needs, and dreams in mind.

From thousands of memberships sold to countless City programs and events held within its doors, The Well has already made a large-scale impact on our community. But how have individual Hilliard residents connected with The Well in their daily lives?

For one Hilliard family, The Well is more than just a community space; it's a place for the kids to explore their favorite activities, for the parents to stay active, and one more reason why Hilliard is such a special place to live.

The Rumer family joined The Well last year as founding members.

"We connect with the facility in a lot of different ways," said parents Matt and Ashley. "The Well offers so many different things that we can do depending on what we're feeling on any given day."

For their children, Emma, 10, and Charlie, 8, the options for activity are endless.

"If we are feeling active, we like to use the Main Gym. Charlie plays football, soccer, and basketball, so we go in there to shoot hoops and practice together," said Ashley. "We also use the MAC Gym, where Emma works on her dance routines using a small speaker."

The Well is just as valuable for the parents.

"I especially enjoy getting up to the track to walk and connect with the family while taking in the energy of the building," said Ashley.

Matt, who works remotely, agrees.

"I enjoy ending my week on Fridays by working from The Well. I'll grab a cup of coffee from Alchemy and set up upstairs for the morning."

Overall, it's the atmosphere of The Well that sets the facility apart.

"It's a pretty energetic environment and a really nice way for the family to end the week — seeing friendly, familiar faces while getting stuff done," said Ashley. "We appreciate all the work and thoughtfulness that went into the space itself. It's a beautiful place with a lot of natural light, which makes it a fun place to be when we are simply spending time together."

Over the past year, the Rumer family has truly gotten the most out of their membership. But one thing they didn't expect was how valuable The Well would be during the colder months.

"Having these indoor spaces has been extremely nice, especially in the winter when we can't get outside. It gives us a consistent place to go and enjoy our activities regardless of the weather," said Matt. "It has been an extremely pleasant surprise and a great value to us to have that social hub when the weather is bad."

For those thinking about joining The Well, Matt and Ashley emphasize the holistic nature of the facility.

"It's not really just about having a place to work out or swim. It's about things the whole family can do together, with first-class amenities," said Ashley. "Whether you are hanging out and reading a book, walking the track, getting something to eat, or playing games like foosball and basketball, it's simply a good place for the family to escape to when we need it."

The Well is just one facet of why the family — who moved to the community nine years ago — fell in love with Hilliard.

"Hilliard is a very thoughtful community. We ride our bikes to The Well or take the bike trails to soccer practice and Old Hilliard to meet friends for food and entertainment," said Matt. "Whether it's the Fall Festival or the bands on Thursday nights at Celebration at the Station, we just love being part of it."

Why is The Well such a special part of Hilliard? The answer is simple.

"It's just a good place with good people."

INDOOR AQUATICS

The Indoor Aquatic Center at The Well offers a versatile and inviting space for swimmers of all ages and abilities - whether you're here to relax, take a class, or get in a great workout. With lap lanes, a lazy river, leisure pool, spa, slide, and interactive play features, it's a year-round destination for fun and fitness.

Please note: Indoor aquatics is separate from outdoor aquatics. Access requires a Well membership, paid daily admission of registration or registration in an indoor aquatic program. Non-members may attend only during their scheduled program.

Hours of operation may vary and are posted on the Facility Calendar, which is accessible through RecTrac, the Hilliard Recreation and Parks app, and our website. While we aim to offer consistent access, availability may adjust based on staffing, programming, demand, and lifeguard coverage. Ensuring the required number of lifeguards for safe operation is our top priority.

Ages & Supervision

- Children 13 & under must be with an actively supervising adult in the aquatic center.
- Children 0-5 must have an adult in arms reach in the water, actively supervising.
- Spa: Ages 18+ only
- Slide: Must be at least 48 inches tall. Children are measured on-site.
- Non-swimmers must stay within arm's reach of an adult.
- Lap Pool Access:
 - Ages 13 & under must pass a swim test before using the lap pool.
 - Lifeguards may require a swim test for any swimmer showing poor ability.

Attire & Hygiene

- Swimsuits required for all patrons. (See Swimsuit Policy on website)
- Swim diapers required for anyone not toilet-trained.

A comprehensive list of rules, policies, and procedures is available on our website. We encourage you to review them before your visit to ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience.

Placement days are available for both preschool (ages 3-5) and youth (ages 6-12) group lessons. To register, please visit our website, or stop by the Welcome Desk at The Well.

It is encouraged that new group swim lesson participants attend a placement day to gain an idea of which level to sign up for. Once lessons begin, your child will remain in the class they are enrolled in. We cannot guarantee availability for level changes.

The Recreation and Parks Department is primarily funded by taxes paid by residents and employees within Hilliard city limits. Therefore, proof of residency/income is required for those seeking Hilliard residency status and discounted rates for membership/program purchases.

Hilliard Resident: Anyone who lives within Hilliard Corporate Boundaries and therefore pays property tax to The City of Hilliard (Franklin County Auditor - Tax District 050 – City of Hilliard), receives the lowest rate.

Income Tax Resident: Anyone who works within Hilliard Corporate Boundaries and therefore pays income tax to The City of Hilliard qualifies for the Hilliard resident rate. This will be listed on a pay stub or tax documents. Any amount of income tax paid to the City of Hilliard in the household qualifies the household for income resident status.

School District/Non-Resident: Anyone who does not live or work within Hilliard Corporate Boundaries and therefore does not pay either property or income tax to the City of Hilliard pays the non-resident rate. Paying taxes to the Hilliard City School District does not qualify for Hilliard residency or income residency as these taxes fund the school district and NOT the operations of the City of Hilliard. The Hilliard City School District and City of Hilliard are separate entities.

Please provide one of the following as residency verification to receive Resident rate:

REMEMBRANCE AND SERVICE

Mark 25 years since the 9/11 attacks with a visit to First Responders Park, 4020 Main St.

The Downtown Hilliard memorial pays tribute not only to the lives lost on Sept. 11, 2001 but to the first responders who protect our community.

Featuring artifacts from the World Trade Center, the park was restored and rededicated in September 2025.

A new installation has been added to honor the courage and sacrifice of those who serve our community. A transparent family silhouette invites visitors to step into the display, serving as a powerful reminder of those who put service above self.
